

Executive, Board, and Staff Retreats

For your organization to be successful, everyone involved with it—including executives, board members, and staff—must share a commitment to its goals and objectives. But getting your team members to work together to define those goals and objectives, and to dedicate themselves to achieving them, does not happen by chance. Instead, it requires everyone to devote quality time to:

Options include:

- » Coordinating your event logistics
- » Creating a focused agenda
- » Facilitating strategic planning
- » Training in specific skill areas
- » Leading teambuilding activities, assessments, and simulations
- » Coordinating on- and off-site retreats, with indoor and outdoor facility options
- » Conducting preretreat surveys or interviews
- » Conducting post-event evaluation and follow-up
- » Providing post-event coaching for participants

» Improving your ability to communicate and work as a cohesive unit

» Focusing on key initiatives

» Developing or fine-tuning your strategy

» Shaping the organization's culture

One way to help your team achieve this is by bringing members together for a retreat—and FlashPoint can assist, planning and facilitating your retreat from start to finish.

We'll meet with you to assess what approach will work best with your team, collect and analyze information about your organization and culture, and set specific goals and outcomes for your event.

Our aim is to get your team out of daily realities and into creative problem-solving mode. Our dynamic, engaging facilitators establish a comfortable, relaxed atmosphere in which participants feel at ease to interact with one another. You can choose from a variety of options, including fun activities and off-the-beaten-path locations.

Getting together with your team offers a critical time for renewal and an opportunity to set a clear vision and create new habits. Let FlashPoint design a retreat that will energize and refocus your group!
